GYA Annual General Meeting 2025

Hyderabad, India

Welcome to the 2025 AGM Ticker, the special GYA newsletter designed to help you prepare for our Annual General Meeting and International Conference of Young Scientists. From 10-13 June 2025, we will meet in Hyderabad, India. The event will be held at the Indian Institute of Technology, Hyderabad, co-organized and supported by the Indian National Young Academy of Science (INYNAS) and the Indian National Science Academy (INSA).

The full programme contains all panels, internal sessions, break times, excursions and more: AGM and Conference Programme 2025 - Annual General Meeting and International Conference

Please check the programme regularly as additions, time changes, etc., may still occur within the next months.

Register for the GYA's 2025 AGM and Conference

START THE VISA PROCESS

India issues various visas. The correct visa type is the e-conference visa, if you are a passport holder of a country eligible for an e-visa. Participants from most countries can apply for such a visa. Processing times are fairly quick. Extensive information and links to request an e-visa are available here: Travel & Visa - Annual General Meeting and International Conference

During the e-visa application you will be asked to provide the following information:

Organizer of the conference

Name: Indian Institute of Technology (IIT)

Should you have questions or need further assistance regarding your VISA process, including requests for a Visa Support Letter to the Local Organising Committee, please contact the LOC through GYA Co-Chair Chandra Shekhar Sharma (gyagm2025@gmail.com).

TRAVEL AND ACCOMMODATION CO-FUNDING

Travel co-funding is available this year for GYA members from all countries. As usual, funding is still available on a limited basis, so if you do not have institutional funding, apply early. Find application details online here: Co-funding - Annual General Meeting and International Conference

TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS

We suggest looking into your travel arrangements now for hopefully more affordable fares. Rajiv Gandhi International Airport is the closest to our conference venue. The campus of the Indian Institute of Technology (IIT) Hyderabad (which is located outside of the city itself) is not accessible through public transport. Please use a taxi or app-based ride service between the airport and the venue.

ACCOMMODATION

Once you have looked into your flight, you should book accommodation for yourself (if you are not applying for travel co-funding). The IIT Hyderabad is reserving space for us in its Guest House. More information about how to secure a room for yourself will be shortly provided for you here: Venue &

Check back at the page linked regularly. We will have more information for you on booking accommodation soon.

VENUE

Our conference venue in 2025 is, as previously mentioned the Indian Institute of Technology, Hyderabad, India. Participation is open to invited, registered participants only.

Reminders

GIVE A RESEARCH TALK

A valued part of each year's programme is to hear from fellow GYA members about their field of expertise. Research Talks showcase the multiplicity of research interests within the GYA membership, making space for individuals to communicate with each other about their research and work.

Submit an abstract today: AGM & Conference 2025 - Research Talks - Annual General Meeting and International Conference

Research talks have previously been known as GYA Lightning Talks.

Welcome to India

HYDERABAD

India's sixth largest city by population, Hyderabad may be best known for its exquisite monuments, rich cuisine, the finest pearls, and for being a start-up hub. However, 400 years of history and a multitude of influences shape its unique character. Founded in 1591 CE by Muhammad Quli Qutb Shah of the Qutb Shahi Dynasty, Hyderabad was built around the magnificent Charminar. With much to offer, in terms of history, heritage, culture, food, architecture, and shopping, Hyderabad makes for quite a regal discovery.
